Equipment Drapes.
Microtek Covers Every Need.

With A Proven History Of Leadership In Prevention
And Protection, Microtek Offers The Most Comprehensive Line Of Equipment Drapes Available Today.

MICROTEK™
MEDICAL B.V.

Microtek. The trusted source of innovative equipment draping solutions for risk reduction and protection.

For more than two decades, Microtek Medical has provided innovative solutions to reduce the risks of infectious disease transmission; to protect healthcare workers in every type of clinical environment; and to help improve clinical outcomes by maximizing the protection available for both patients and medical professionals during procedures.

There is no better example of this dedicated expertise than our complete range of equipment drapes.

The thinking behind the leading innovations in equipment draping.

From the lab to the operating room, innovative equipment draping solutions from Microtek have significantly advanced the level of risk reduction and protection. This is not just about producing drapes for equipment. It's about more intelligently designed draping solutions that function effectively at critical moments of potential biological danger.

Microtek. The first name in Microscope, C-Arm, Camera and Laser Drapes, Probe Covers and more.

You already know Microtek as the long established leader in microscope drapes. The same thinking behind these industry standard draping solutions goes into our camera, laser, C-arm, x-ray cassette, accessory equipment drapes and probe covers. Top to bottom, Microtek is the one trusted name that has virtually every piece of equipment in your facility covered.

"This is about protecting patients and medical professionals in some of the most hazardous environments in healthcare."
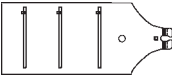

Why equipment draping solutions should be designed for people.

Each day, both healthcare professionals and patients come face to face with the serious risks of contamination and infection in clinical environments around the world. It's impossible to know every potential risk people may face in every clinical situation. It is, however, possible to protect every clinical environment.
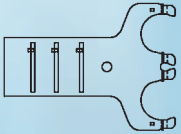

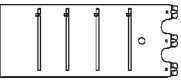

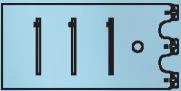

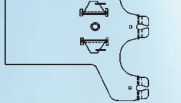

With a comprehensive line of advanced equipment draping solutions today, and ongoing innovations being developed for future needs, Microtek is the key to patients and professionals being able to enjoy peace of mind when it matters most.

Order your Microtek equipment drapes from the selection on the following pages, or visit www.microtekmed.com to see our complete online catalog.
